Hampton Court Palace was originally built by Cardinal Wolsey, who gave it to Henry VIII. It was a Royal residence until the reign of George II, since when the private rooms have been apportioned to certain ladies as a place of residence and the State rooms thrown open to the public. The gardens are very extensive, and include the well-known Maze and the famous Giant Vine planted in 1768.

ARTISTIC PHOTOGRAPHS OF THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN

Hampton Court Palace was rebuilt by Cardinal Wolsey, who gave it to Henry VIII. It was a favourite residence of the Tudor monarchs, and since then the private residence of sovereigns, and is now open to the public. It contains a picture gallery, and the State rooms, the walls of which are hung with tapestry, and include the well-known Mantegna cartoons. The Great Vine was planted in 1768.
